

Kalanjali 2019

If dreams are wings, college is a runway to take off from. The innermost passions, the veiled strengths, the soft feelings like a poem harboring at the deepest space of a poet's heart, all get perfect shape in a place called college. Kalanjali, 2019 was an opportunity to witness the young and ignited brains and hearts. There was a Tsunami of zeal and happiness all around. Youth drenched in unprecedented energy performed in magnificent way. The three days long inter collegiate extravaganza hosted by the Jagran College of Arts, Science and Commerce was started with a delightful inauguration at the Laxmi Devi Auditorium on November 7, 2019 with the lighting of lamp by the Honorable Chief Guest Dr. Arti Lal Chandani, Principal of GSVM Medical College along with Shree YM Gupta, the Chairman of Jagran Group, Dr. J.N. Gupta, CEO, Jagran Education Foundation, Dr. M.P. Gupta, Jagran Education Foundation and Dr. Asmita Dubey, Principal, Jagran College.

Day 1- Beginning with mime, there were several other competitions held. Mimicry, Nukkad Natak, Quiz, Dance Drama, Folk Dance both Indian and Western were held beautifully. Besides, the Eye Snap and Ceramic competitions were also organized to give the students an opportunity to express themselves. Shree Radhey Shyam Dixit, the Director of Nritya Bharti Kanpur and Mahesh Dwivedi, Dr. Vandana Deb Roy, Director, Nupur Kala Ashram and Mr. Ravi Dubey from Virus Dance Studio, Shree Ajay Pathak, VSEC, Kanpur and Shree Raj Kumar, Jain International Public school were the judges of these competitions.

Day 2- The second day of inter- collegiate mega event Kalanjali was an ideal blend of different colors of youth's expressions in the form of music and art in particular. Different music competitions were held. Mrs. Rajeshwari Dhoundhiyal, Chairperson of Madhupark Manchan Sanskratik Sansthan and Shree Manoj Srivastava, Lecturer, Music at the PSEC Kanpur were the honorable judges. The Mr. & Ms. Kalanjali was the most awaited event of the day. Dr. Neeta Jain, Principal of Christ Church College Kanpur, Mr. Abhishek Awasthi, the fashion Guru and Dr. Sushma Mondal, Principal V.S.E.C were the judges of this event. Another big show of the day was the Rangoli competition. Besides, the students also exhibited their potential and in- depth knowledge about the folk art, dance and culture. Shree Ajay Pathak was the judge of this event. The students of different colleges affiliated the CSJM University participated in these events.

Day 3- The third day of Kalanjali commenced with the events like debate, self-composed poetry recitation etc. The debate was organized on the topic, ‘Will the Development of Artificial Intelligence Benefit or Harm Humankind.’ Mrs. Meenakshi Singhal, Mr. P. Basak, Dr. Kamal Musaddi and Dr. Chhaya Jain were the judges of these events. Besides, the face making competition was held and the eminent experts Mr. Ajay Pathak and Mr. Raj Kumar were the judges of this event.

Day 4- The last day of Kalanjali was not least at all. The valedictory session of this mega event was held in the Laxmi Devi Auditorium with Ganesha Vandana and lighting of the lamp. Dr. Asmita Dubey, Principal of Jagran College of Arts, Science and Commerce welcomed the Chief Guest, Shree Y.M. Gupta, Chairman Jagran Group, Dr. J.N. Gupta, CEO JEF, Dr. M.P. Gupta, Director, Jagran College, and other dignitaries. The distinguished guests witnessed the glimpses of the events in the auditorium. Thereafter, the long-awaited prize distribution ceremony started. Ishika Singh and team nabbed the first place in the mime competition. Harshita Gupta from D.G. College Kanpur claimed the first prize for mimicry. Dhairya and her team was given the top prize in the Nukkad Natak whereas Deepak and his team from the Christ Church College won the first prize in the Quiz competition. Karamveer and his team was also given the first prize in the dance competition. Jasdeep Singh from JDC got the best prize for his performance in the Sugam Sangeet competition. Prakhar Shukla from PSIT Kanpur was given the first prize in the western dance completion for his outstanding performance. Most glamorous titles of the event Mr. and Ms. Kalanjali were given to Maneet Saggu and Raina Wahaz respectively. The first prize winners in the events like Art Gallery Eye Snap Event, Ceramic Work, Rangoli, Caricature, Poster Making and Debate were claimed by Krishan Madan, Vaibhavi Mishra, Anchal Gupta and Anchal Singh, Sanskar Singh and Divya Shukla respectively.