

Winter Carnival 2021

Fun and merriment abounded the campus on 29th and 30th Dec 2021 as students embraced the frosty heart thrilling activities during winter carnival creating beautiful reminiscence to memorize the rest of the life. Students participated actively in various activities conducted within the campus Saga music, Turn coat, Gold dust, Hunt with Stunt and Fighter kite. The diligent endeavors of the students manifested through their performance candidly won the hearts of everyone.

Music is the art of arranging sounds in time through the elements of melody, harmony and rhythm. Music Competition: Saga Music was grouped into two categories - Bollywood and light music in which students participated with full zeal and enthusiasm. Rajeshwari Dhoundiyal, Principal of Shri Nanu Bhayia Sangeet Mahavidhayalaya graced and judged the occasion. Anjali Singh and Varun Singh bagged first position in the bollywood and light music category.

In paint without brush competition unique methods of painting were used by the students to exhibit their colours of imagination so marvelously on paper, that it surprised the judge of the event, Dr. Raj Kishori Dubey from A.N.D College. She loved the artistic and creative work of the students. 33 students participated in the competition where Akshat Rajput stood first followed by Muskan Singh and Nimit Bhattacharya. Taniska Singh received consolation prize.

Turn coat 'compete against oneself' made the students sanguine and better orators so that they can fearlessly render their views on any given topic. There were 12 participants where Sakshi Awasthi of B.A fabulously presented her argument from both sides and stood first followed by Tanay Sharma and Shivansh. The judge of the event was Mrs. Bhavya Sharma from the Department of English; Mercy Memorial School appreciated students' performance and remarked that such events act as a vehicle for developing and practicing key transferable skills among the students.

On the theme Retro Dance – the Gold Dust, the participants represented themselves with the great confidence and enthusiasm. Dr Anil Kumar Yadav, Registrar, CSJMU graced the occasion as Chief Guest. Dr. Anjali Maury, Deputy Registrar, CSJMU was witnessed as the Guest of Honour. The presence of Dr Vandana Deb Roy as the judge of the competition added a glint to the program. The diligent endeavours of our students were manifested through their dance performance and candidly won the hearts of everyone. 19 teams of participants represented themselves with great confidence and fervour where Tanay Sharma and Varun Singh stood first followed by Ayushi Sharma and Kartik Awasthi and Samiksha Tiwari and Sarthak Syal stood third. The Honorable Guests presented trophies to the winning teams. Speaking on the occasion the Registrar appreciated college for wholehearted participation and efforts put in for preparing the students for the competition.

The sky looked incredibly beautiful and was adorned with colorful kites of different hues all around in Fighter kite activity. After a neck to neck competition, the winner of this event was Kartik Gupta of B.com First year.

With everyone enjoying as one big family, the Cycling - Hunt with Stunt was another feather in the cap of festive where Swaraj Bardeja bagged the first position, followed by Harshit Sharma and Sahil Moolchandani Stood third.

Above all, 12 aromatic food stalls showcased the working and management expertise of the students where Raghav and team won the first prize. And the eye catching yoga performance by Priyambhara of B.A. first year won the hearts of all the spectators.

The event not only provided a platform for the students to foster their creativity and decision-making skills but also helped them explore their hidden talents and discover new areas of interest. The overall program was well co-ordinated by Dr. Hema Rohra and Dr. Swati Dwivedi