

75th Independence Day Anniversary

On the occasion of the 75th anniversary of independence at Jagran College of Arts, Science, and Commerce, Chief Guest Dr. Anjani Kumar Mishra, while addressing the students, conveyed the message of keeping the country paramount. A flag hoisting ceremony and a cultural program were organized to celebrate the Amrit Mahotsav of Independence. Additionally, the students enthusiastically participated in Rangoli, Poster Making, Slogan, and Poetry Writing competitions.

At 10 am in the college premises, the chief guest, Mr. Anjani Kumar Mishra, Controller of Examinations at CSJM University Kanpur, Mr. Mahendra Mohan Gupta, President of Jagran Group, and Mrs. Ritu Gupta, Vice Chairperson of Jagran Education Foundation, hoisted the tricolor along with all the teachers, students, and employees of the college. They celebrated the Amrit Mahotsav of tax freedom.

Following the flag hoisting, a beautiful cultural program was presented by the students of the college. The entire auditorium echoed with the sounds of 'Lehare Do' and 'Jai Ho.' The opportunities inherent in the Agneepath scheme were portrayed by the college students through a soulful dance drama.

On this occasion, Abhay Shukla, the winner of the poetry competition, filled everyone with the spirit of patriotism by reciting a poem titled "हाँ मैं हिंदुस्तानी हूँ." The program was conducted, and the guests were welcomed by Nishika Khatri and Geetanshi Bhatia, students of B.Com. Honors.

During this proud occasion, the Chief Guest encouraged the students and shared mantras to fulfill their responsibilities and roles towards the country properly. Shri Mishra Ji, who served in the army for 25 years, also shared his valuable experiences with the students. The winning participants in various competitions were awarded by Dr. Anjani Mishra, Mrs. Ritu Gupta, Dr. J. N. Gupta (CEO, Jagran Education Foundation), and college principal Dr. Asmita Dubey, who encouraged them by presenting awards.
