

Diya and Kalash Decoration

In celebration of the festival of lights, Diwali, the Drawing Department at Jagran College of Arts, Science, and Commerce organized a vibrant and creative event on 21 Oct 2022, centered around the decoration of kalash and diyas. The event aimed to infuse the campus with the festive spirit of Diwali while providing students with an opportunity to showcase their artistic talents. The event commenced with students from all the departments coming together to adorn kalash and diyas with intricate designs and vibrant colors. Kalash, symbolizing prosperity and auspiciousness, were embellished with traditional motifs and patterns, while diyas, representing the triumph of light over darkness, were adorned with decorative accents and embellishments. Collaborative efforts fostered a sense of camaraderie among participants, as they worked together to create stunning decorative pieces that captured the essence of Diwali. As the campus came alive with the vibrant hues of decorated kalash and diyas, a festive atmosphere permeated throughout Jagran College. Students, faculty, and staff members came together to admire the artwork and revel in the joyous spirit of Diwali, fostering a sense of unity and togetherness. Yashasvi Singh(B.com2), Ayush Kashyap(BCA 2) Tanisha Manchandani(B.Com 1) and Disha Singh (BA 1) bagged first, second and third respectively in Kalash Decoration.
