

Folk Music

On the vibrant days of 22nd and 23rd September 2022, Jagran College resonated with the melodious tunes of folk music as it hosted an enriching workshop dedicated to this traditional art form. The event aimed to celebrate the rich cultural heritage of folk music and provide students with a platform to learn and appreciate its nuances. The two-day event was filled with engaging sessions, interactive performances, and insightful discussions, offering attendees a comprehensive understanding of folk music's significance and intricacies. Mrs. Kavita Singh, ma'am a senior vocalist from Laxmi Devi Lalit Kala Academy not only shared her immense knowledge but also gave a mesmerizing demonstration of folk music, bringing theory to life with practical knowledge. Through initiatives like these, Jagran College continues to uphold its commitment to promoting cultural diversity, artistic excellence, and holistic education, ensuring that the legacy of folk music thrives for generations to come. The event was coordinator by Mrs. Shruti Shukla and Mr. Nishant Raj Kumar Singh.
