

Hindi JAM Competition

On the auspicious date of October 29, 2022, the Commerce Department at Jagran College of Arts, Science, and Commerce, Kanpur orchestrated a symphony of linguistic prowess through the medium of a Hindi JAM (Just a Minute) competition.

Executed with finesse in three distinct phases, Principal Dr. Asmita Dubey ji graced the occasion, imparting her encouragement to the participants by illuminating the profound importance of Hindi as a language of cultural richness.

The esteemed adjudicators for the event were Mr. Anil Kumar Pandey and Dr. Shubha Aggarwal. Meticulous orchestration was undertaken by the able hands of Dr. R. N Singh, Dr. Manisha Gupta, and Dr. Kamal Vinod Kumar Singh. The seamless execution of the competition was skillfully managed by Shriyanshi and Alina, ensuring a captivating and engaging experience for all involved.

In the grand finale of linguistic dexterity, Divyanshi Dua emerged as the luminary first-place winner, followed by the eloquent Anurag Trivedi securing the second position, and the dynamic duo of Mayank and Divya Awasthi claiming the distinguished third position.

The event bore witness to the esteemed presence of the college's revered educators and students, who collectively shared in the celebration of linguistic finesse and eloquence on this memorable occasion.
