ARTICLE 1: OBJECT

Both Institutes agree to develop the following collaborative activities in the academic areas of mutual interest, on a basis of equality and reciprocity.

The two institutions shall seek to promote:

I. Faculty Exchange

- a) The exchange of faculty to the mutual benefit of both institutions,
- b) Collaboration in teaching, research and development, and consultancy studies in the field of mutual interest,
- c) Conducting lectures,
- d) Undertaking joint research,
- e) Participating in seminars, symposiums, and other types of academic discussions

II. Student Exchange

PPN Kanpur and JC Kanpur agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student, and from where he/she is expected to graduate/ postgraduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period to undertake a pre-determined programme of study or research.

- a) Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- b) An exchange student will continue to be treated as full-time student at his/her home institution.
- c) An exchange student will be considered as full-time "exchange" student at the host institution.
- d) His/her programme of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.
- e) The host institution will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module, award a letter grade or marks, and issue a letter to that effect.
- f) The home institution may award to the exchange student credits earned at a host institution, but only after the home institution has established correspondence
