

Poetry Competition on Nature and Happiness

On February 20, 2020, Jagran College hosted a poetry competition centered around the themes of nature and happiness. The event aimed to provide a platform for students to express their creativity, explore the beauty of nature, and delve into the intricacies of happiness through the art of poetry. Students showcased their poetic talents, weaving verses that celebrated the splendor of nature or explored the essence of happiness in diverse forms. The judges selected the following participants as winners based on their poetic merit and adherence to the themes: Shreya Sharma stood first, Isha Trivedi stood second and Yash Trivedi stood third.
