

Sports Day Celebration :Honouring Dhyan Chand

In commemoration of the legendary field hockey player Major Dhyan Chand, a sports day celebration was organized on August 29th, 2018. The event was not only a tribute to Dhyan Chand's remarkable contributions to Indian sports but also an opportunity for the college community to bond and showcase their athletic prowess. One of the highlights of the celebration was a spirited volleyball match that brought together teams from different departments. The match was fiercely contested, with players displaying skillful serves, powerful spikes, and agile defense maneuvers. The atmosphere was electrifying, with cheers and applause echoing throughout the venue as spectators rallied behind their favorite teams. Team A emerged as a winner by defeating team B giving tough competition in two set 18-15, 14-13. The volleyball match served as a testament to the spirit of sportsmanship, despite the competitive nature of the game, players exhibited respect and cooperation, embodying the values espoused by Dhyan Chand himself.
