

Speakers of Observation

“You can speak well if your tongue can deliver the message of your heart”

The event named as “Speakers of observation” in which students presented their thoughts on different topics such as Is digital technology good for students, what is more important hard-work or talent, - Is caste-based reservation good or bad, Secularism good or bad, etc. Total 9 students participated in the event.

To judge the uniqueness of the speech, Dr. Abha Saxena (Department of Psychology) and Dr. Anju Sachan (Department of English) were appointed as the judges of the event

After the close observation by judges, the following students were declared as winners and they were felicitated by our Principal, Dr. Asmita Dubey:

Ist - Sweta Verma (B. Sc. II)

IIInd- Khushoo Gupta (B.Sc. III)

IIIrd - Kanak Gupta (B.Sc. I)

The event was coordinated by Mr. Prashant Khare, Mr. Saurabh Bajpai and Dr. Usha Awasthi from Science Department